

PMTO and Diversity

International PMTO Conference in Europe

7th and 8th of June 2017
Radisson, Aarhus City, Denmark

The conference is organized by VIA University College with financial support by the Danish National Board of Social Services.

PROGRAM – Day 1

08:15-09:00 Registration and Coffee

09:00-9:35 Welcome by Conference Host (Denmark)
Director, Louise Gade, VIA University College

Conference Opening

The PMTO storyline across nations and cultures

Marion Forgatch, Ph.D., Executive Director of Implementation Sciences International, Inc., emeritus of Oregon Social Learning Center, USA

9:35-11:00

Plenary Symposium 1 PMTO across European Countries and Generations

Fidelity across generations, across implementations

Margrét Sigmarsdóttir, Ph.D., Director of Fidelity, ISII, & PMTO Director at The Government Agency for Child Protection, Iceland

Viking Power: Reach, Data, Success

Elisabeth Askeland, Clinical Director, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

Margrét Sigmarsdóttir, Ph.D., Director of Fidelity, ISII, & PMTO Director at The Government Agency for Child Protection, Iceland

Christoffer Scavenius Sonne-Schmidt, The Danish National Center for Social Research, Denmark

Leading the Symposium and Panel Discussion

Programleader Denmark Gøye Thorn Svendsen and Marion Forgatch, ISII, USA

11:00-11:30

Pause and Mingle

11:30-12:55

Plenary Symposium 2 PMTO across Cultures

Supporting Parents in Multiple Countries

Nancy Amador Buenabad, Instituto Nacional de Psiquiatria, Mexico
Liz Wieling, Ph.D., University of Minnesota, USA

PMTO Groups for Ethnic Minorities in Norway.

Sissel Torsvik and Siril Cock Aschjem, PMTO Mentors, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

Working with an Interpreter

Susanne Minds, Assistant Professor, University College VIA,
Bo Lyby, PMTO Therapist, Child Center, Municipality of Aarhus, Denmark

After Deployment: Adaptive Parenting Tools (ADAPT)

Abigail Gewirtz, Ph.D., L.P., University of Minnesota, USA

Leading the Symposium and Summary

Drs.Jolle Tjaden, PMTO program director, PI Research, the Netherlands

13:00-14:15

Lunch

14:15-15:20

Breakout Workshops Research, Technology, and Innovative Strategies for Providing Service

Research

1. Less is not always more: Low resource families and effects of PMTO and Brief Parent Training

Truls Tømmeraas, Ph.D., The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

- The presentation will be based on several published research articles on the topics
- Family Resources and Effects of Parent Training Interventions on Child Behavior Problems: A Cumulative Risk Approach
- Is there a Scale-up Penalty? Testing Behavioral Change in the Scaling up of Parent Management Training in Norway

Innovative strategies for providing service

1. PMTO-informed workshops

Luann Gray, LMSW, PMTO Implementation Leader, Michigan, USA

Kim Batsche-McKenzie, LMSW, Manager of Programs for Children with Serious Emotional Disturbance at Michigan Department of Health and Human Services

Sheri Falvay, Director, Division of Mental Health Services to Children and Families, Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, USA

2. Blended Learning As a Feasible Training Strategy

*Nancy Amador Buenabad, Instituto Nacional de Psiquiatria, Mexico
Kendal Holtrop, Ph.D., Florida State University, USA*

3. After Deployment: Adaptive Parenting Tools (ADAPT)

Abigail Gewirtz, Ph.D., L.P., University of Minnesota, USA

4. Innovative strategies for providing service; The TIBIR prevention model (Early Initiatives for Children at Risk)

Begoña Gomez, Jorid Bjørkaas and Terje Sliper, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

Clinical – Activating your practice

1. Emotional Regulation

Kristin Richardsen & Vibeke Watne, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

15:20-15:50

Pause and Mingle

15:50-17:10

Breakout Workshops

Research and Technology - Fidelity

1. A new database and the recertification procedure

Edda Vikar Gudmundsdóttir, Cand. Psych, The Government Agency for Child Protection, Iceland

2. Observation of Visitation Checklist

Vicki McArthur, Director of Clinical Services in Reintegration, St. Francis Community Services, Stacy Dunkerley and Becci Akin, Ph.D., University of Kansas, USA

Clinical – Activating your practice

1. Involvement of the child in PMTO-therapy

Anett Apeland, Assistant Clinical Director, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

2. Tailoring PMTO to specific family challenges (psychopathology): the process of dysregulation and regulation

Drs. Gonne Albrecht, director at PI Research & Drs. Jolle Tjaden, PMTO program director at PI Research in the Netherlands

Innovative strategies for providing service

1. PMTO-informed parenting intervention with Latino families (out-reach, engagement, retention)

Kendal Holtrop, Ph. D., Florida State University, USA

2. Adapting PMTO for the Context of War Trauma: From Families in Northern Uganda to Resettled Karen Refugees

*Liz Wieling, Ph.D., University of Minnesota, USA
Chris Mehus, Ph.D., University of Minnesota, USA*

17:15-18:30

Poster session

19:30-21:00

Dinner

PROGRAM – Day 2

08:00-08:30 Mingle and Coffee

08:30-10:15 Plenary Symposium 3
PMTO in the Outer Limits
(Working with Parents of Teens)

Introduction: Video Montage of Work with Teens and Families,
ISII

Mediation in Families with Teens

Drs. Gonne Albrecht, director at PI Research & Drs. Jolle Tjalden, PMTO program director in the Netherlands

Engagement of Teens in Foster Care

Laura Rains, Director of Implementation and Training, ISII, USA

ADHD and Teens: New Experiences

Christina Kjerholt, PMTO mentor, cand. psych., Denmark

Leading the Symposium and Summary

Anett Apeland, Assistant Clinical Director, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

10:15-10:45 Video Parent Panel

Video Clips and PMTO Fairy Tales from Denmark

Tove Hansen, Holstebro, Denmark

10:45-11:15 Pause and Mingle

11:15-12:20 Breakout Workshops

Innovative strategies for providing service

1. Parent Coaching in PBIS schools

Mette Havskov Jensen, PMTO mentor, Louise Falk, PMTO Therapist, Minna Kristensen, PBIS Parent Coach, Denmark

2. Innovative strategies for providing PMTO services and support; Presentation of the pmt.no-database and the Implementation guide for PMTO and TIBIR (Early Initiatives for Children at Risk).

Marit Reer, Dag Erik Kristiansen, Odd-Anfin Havdal, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

3. Telehealth Delivery of PMTO

Bev Gutray & Tara Wolff, Canadian Mental Health Association, and Sandy Wiens, Ministry of Children and Family Development, British Columbia, Canada

4. PMTO model for Kansas youth in foster care with emotional and behavioral problems

Vicki McArthur, Director of Clinical Services in Reintegration, St. Francis Community Services, Stacy Dunkerley, & Becci Akin, Ph.D., University of Kansas, USA

5. Round table discussions; Looking forward, Examining and expanding the process of Change in evidence-based Parent Training.

Marion Forgatch, Ph.D., Executive Director of Implementation Sciences International, Inc., emeritus of Oregon Social Learning Center, USA

Nancy Amador Buenabad, Instituto Nacional de Psiquiatria, Mexico

Elisabeth Askeland, Clinical Director, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

Drs Gonnie Albrecht, director at PI Research, Nederland

Facilitator; Helge Hallmann, PMTO Denmark

Clinical – Activating your practice

1. The PMTO-therapist's work in school and kindergarden

Elin Thue Berg and Laila Kristoffersen Mikalsen, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

2. Activating your Practice: skills, tools, movement

Laura Rains, Director of Implementation and Training, ISII, USA,

12:30-13:45

Lunch

13:45-14:45

Poster Sessions

14:45-15:00

Pause and Mingle and Find Your Way to the Plenary

15:00-16:25

Plenary Symposium 4
Going to Scale and Maintaining Fidelity at a Reasonable Expense

Introduction to Frame the Question

Gøye Thorn Svendsen, M.Sc., L.P., PMTO program manager, National Board of Social Service, Denmark

Michigan: Building Infrastructure

Luann Gray, LMSW, PMTO Implementation Leader, Michigan, USA,

Kim Batsche-McKenzie, LMSW, Manager of Programs for Children with Serious Emotional Disturbance at Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, and Sheri Falvay, Director, Division of Mental Health Services to Children and Families, Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, USA

The Norway Experience: Scaling up –Fidelity and Outcome

Elisabeth Askeland, Clinical Director, The Norwegian Center for Child Behavioral Development, Norway

Netherlands: Taking Coaching to the Next Level

Drs. Gonnje Albrecht, director at PI Research & Drs. Jolle Tjaden, PMTO program director at PI Research in the Netherlands

Leading the Symposium and Summary Discussion

Edda Vikar Gudmundsdóttir, Cand. Psych., The Government Agency for Child Protection, Iceland, and Vicki McArthur, Director of Clinical Services in Reintegration, St. Francis Community Services, USA

16:25-17:00

Closing Activity

Closing Remarks

Laura Rains, Director of Implementation and Training, ISII, USA

Gøye Thorn Svendsen, M.Sc., L.P., PMTO program manager, National Board of Social Service, Denmark

Margrét Sigmarsdóttir, Ph.D., Director of Fidelity, ISII, & PMTO Director at The Government Agency for Child Protection, Iceland

Evaluations